Class Description:

To “build” a head in portrait drawing requires much more than simply copying what you see. And the necessary know-how only comes with definitive knowledge. In this portrait drawing class, students will learn to understand and execute the details involved in capturing facial elements on paper by understanding the principles of hand/eye coordination, gesturing, and shading to achieve the optimal outcome. Students must supply a photo of someone of their choice to draw from.

Supply List:

- 11"×14" Drawing pad
- 11"×14" Tracing pad
- Set of graphite drawing pencils
- Set of graphite sticks
- Pencil sharpener
- Kneaded eraser
- Set of blending stumps
- Black & White reference photo
